

Congratulations, Ivan Savov!

At the recent annual meeting of EFAC (the European Federation of Associations of Certification Bodies), Moody International Bulgaria's Ivan Savov was elected as Chairman of EFAC. In this function, Ivan will act as the official representative of over 120 European certification bodies for the International Accreditation Forum, and will also be official representative of the EA (European co-operation for Accreditation), the European body responsible for the implementation of EU rules and directives relating to accreditation and certification. On behalf of everyone at Moody International, we wish you the best in your Chairman's role, Ivan!
